Page one

Section 1. The operator keeps a log of every inspection and every repair carried out on the network, with the date and the name of the inspector.

Section 1. The operator keeps a log of every inspection and every repair carried out on the network, with the date and the name of the inspector.

Section 1. The operator keeps a log of every inspection and every repair carried out on the network, with the date and the name of the inspector.

Section 1. The operator keeps a log of every inspection and every repair carried out on the network, with the date and the name of the inspector.

> Callout: inspection results are summarised in the annex.

Page two

Section 2. The operator keeps a log of every inspection and every repair carried out on the network, with the date and the name of the inspector.

Section 2. The operator keeps a log of every inspection and every repair carried out on the network, with the date and the name of the inspector.

Section 2. The operator keeps a log of every inspection and every repair carried out on the network, with the date and the name of the inspector.

Section 2. The operator keeps a log of every inspection and every repair carried out on the network, with the date and the name of the inspector.

> Callout: inspection results are summarised in the annex.

Page three

Section 3. The operator keeps a log of every inspection and every repair carried out on the network, with the date and the name of the inspector.

Section 3. The operator keeps a log of every inspection and every repair carried out on the network, with the date and the name of the inspector.

Section 3. The operator keeps a log of every inspection and every repair carried out on the network, with the date and the name of the inspector.

Section 3. The operator keeps a log of every inspection and every repair carried out on the network, with the date and the name of the inspector.

> Callout: inspection results are summarised in the annex.