Master Services Agreement (synthetic sample)

1. Definitions

1.1. For definitions: the Customer shall pay each undisputed invoice within thirty days of the date on which it receives the invoice.

1.2. For definitions: the Supplier may charge interest on any amount that is overdue at the rate of two per cent above the base rate.

1.3. For definitions: either party may ask for a change to the Services by sending a written change request to the other party.

1.4. For definitions: the Supplier shall assess each change request within ten Business Days and state its effect on the Charges.

2. Services

2.1. For services: no change shall take effect until both parties have signed a change note that describes it.

2.2. Where a change is needed urgently to protect the security of the Services, the Supplier may make it first and ask for approval afterwards.

2.3. For services: the Supplier shall keep complete and accurate records of the time spent and the materials used.

2.4. For services: the Customer may audit those records once in each Contract Year on giving fifteen Business Days notice.

2.5. For services: each party shall keep the terms of this Agreement and all information it receives from the other party confidential.

3. Charges and payment

3.1. For charges and payment: the Supplier shall maintain insurance against its liability under this Agreement with a reputable insurer.

3.2. For charges and payment: neither party is liable for a delay caused by an event beyond its reasonable control.

3.3. For charges and payment: the Customer shall pay each undisputed invoice within thirty days of the date on which it receives the invoice.

3.4. For charges and payment: the Supplier may charge interest on any amount that is overdue at the rate of two per cent above the base rate.

4. Changes

4.1. For changes: either party may ask for a change to the Services by sending a written change request to the other party.

4.2. For changes: the Supplier shall assess each change request within ten Business Days and state its effect on the Charges.

4.3. For changes: no change shall take effect until both parties have signed a change note that describes it.

4.4. For changes: the Supplier shall keep complete and accurate records of the time spent and the materials used.

5. Records and audit

5.1. For records and audit: the Customer may audit those records once in each Contract Year on giving fifteen Business Days notice.

5.2. For records and audit: each party shall keep the terms of this Agreement and all information it receives from the other party confidential.

5.3. For records and audit: the Supplier shall maintain insurance against its liability under this Agreement with a reputable insurer.

5.4. For records and audit: neither party is liable for a delay caused by an event beyond its reasonable control.

6. Confidentiality

6.1. For confidentiality: the Customer shall pay each undisputed invoice within thirty days of the date on which it receives the invoice.

6.2. For confidentiality: the Supplier may charge interest on any amount that is overdue at the rate of two per cent above the base rate.

6.3. For confidentiality: either party may ask for a change to the Services by sending a written change request to the other party.

6.4. For confidentiality: the Supplier shall assess each change request within ten Business Days and state its effect on the Charges.

7. Insurance

7.1. For insurance: no change shall take effect until both parties have signed a change note that describes it.

7.2. For insurance: the Supplier shall keep complete and accurate records of the time spent and the materials used.

7.3. For insurance: the Customer may audit those records once in each Contract Year on giving fifteen Business Days notice.

7.4. For insurance: each party shall keep the terms of this Agreement and all information it receives from the other party confidential.

8. Force majeure

8.1. For force majeure: the Supplier shall maintain insurance against its liability under this Agreement with a reputable insurer.

8.2. For force majeure: neither party is liable for a delay caused by an event beyond its reasonable control.

8.3. For force majeure: the Customer shall pay each undisputed invoice within thirty days of the date on which it receives the invoice.

8.4. For force majeure: the Supplier may charge interest on any amount that is overdue at the rate of two per cent above the base rate.

9. Term and termination

9.1. For term and termination: either party may ask for a change to the Services by sending a written change request to the other party.

9.2. For term and termination: the Supplier shall assess each change request within ten Business Days and state its effect on the Charges.

9.3. For term and termination: no change shall take effect until both parties have signed a change note that describes it.

9.4. For term and termination: the Supplier shall keep complete and accurate records of the time spent and the materials used.

10. General

10.1. For general: the Customer may audit those records once in each Contract Year on giving fifteen Business Days notice.

10.2. For general: each party shall keep the terms of this Agreement and all information it receives from the other party confidential.

10.3. For general: the Supplier shall maintain insurance against its liability under this Agreement with a reputable insurer.

10.4. For general: neither party is liable for a delay caused by an event beyond its reasonable control.