Clause 9 (synthetic)

A new opening sentence is set here so that every later line moves down
The statutory notice period applies unless the nominated representative agrees otherwise within twenty-four hours of the written request by the tenant
The deposit is refundable when the landlord confirms the premises are in order and any deduction is itemised in writing with the receipts attached to it
Interest accrues at the base rate plus two percent on any late payment due
Total retained pending inspection 1,250.00 payable within 14 days of notice
Notices are served by post or by hand at the address given in the schedule
This agreement is governed by the law of the place where the premises lie