3.3 All staff must file records in the agreed systems. They must ask the information governance team when they are unsure where a record belongs.

3.4 Contractors who hold records on our behalf must follow this policy as agreed in their contract.

4.2 Records are kept for the period in the retention schedule. Where the schedule gives no period, the record is kept for six years after the last action on it, and then reviewed by the owner of the record.

4.3 Paper records may be scanned and the paper copy destroyed after a quality check of a sample of the scanned batch, if the scan is complete and legible.
