Limitation of liability (synthetic probe document)

The Supplier shall carry out the maintenance services described in Schedule 2 with reasonable skill and care and in accordance with good industry practice. The total liability of the Supplier for all claims arising in any contract year shall not exceed the fees paid by the Customer in that year, except for liability for death or personal injury caused by negligence, which is not limited by this clause.

Clause 12 survives the end of this agreement.