1. Maintenance schedule for the north building. Routine inspections take place every quarter and cover heating, ventilation and the fire alarm system.

2. Emergency call-outs are answered around the clock. The contractor must arrive on site within four hours of the call and report to the facilities desk.

3. Spare parts that are not on the stock list are ordered after written approval. Delivery normally takes ten working days from the order date.

4. Invoices are paid within thirty days of receipt. Disputed amounts are held until the facilities manager confirms the work was completed.

5. The contract runs for two years and renews automatically unless either party gives notice at least ninety days before the end of the term.

6. Maintenance schedule for the north building. Routine inspections take place every quarter and cover heating, ventilation and the fire alarm system.

7. Emergency call-outs are answered around the clock. The contractor must arrive on site within four hours of the call and report to the facilities desk.

8. Spare parts that are not on the stock list are ordered after written approval. Delivery normally takes ten working days from the order date.

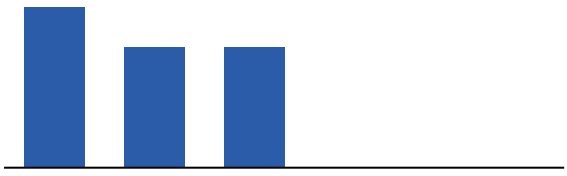
9. Invoices are paid within thirty days of receipt. Disputed amounts are held until the facilities manager confirms the work was completed.

10. The contract runs for two years and renews automatically unless either party gives notice at least ninety days before the end of the term.

11. Maintenance schedule for the north building. Routine inspections take place every quarter and cover heating, ventilation and the fire alarm system.

12. Emergency call-outs are answered around the clock. The contractor must arrive on site within four hours of the call and report to the facilities desk.

Figure 1. Call-outs per quarter.



13. Spare parts that are not on the stock list are ordered after written approval. Delivery normally takes ten working days from the order date.

14. Invoices are paid within thirty days of receipt. Disputed amounts are held until the facilities manager confirms the work was completed.

15. The contract runs for two years and renews automatically unless either party gives notice at least ninety days before the end of the term.

16. Maintenance schedule for the north building. Routine inspections take place every quarter and cover heating, ventilation and the fire alarm system.

17. Emergency call-outs are answered around the clock. The contractor must arrive on site within four hours of the call and report to the facilities desk.

18. Spare parts that are not on the stock list are ordered after written approval. Delivery normally takes ten working days from the order date.

19. Invoices are paid within thirty days of receipt. Disputed amounts are held until the facilities manager confirms the work was completed.

20. The contract runs for two years and renews automatically unless either party gives notice at least ninety days before the end of the term.

21. Maintenance schedule for the north building. Routine inspections take place every quarter and cover heating, ventilation and the fire alarm system.

22. Emergency call-outs are answered around the clock. The contractor must arrive on site within four hours of the call and report to the facilities desk.

23. Spare parts that are not on the stock list are ordered after written approval. Delivery normally takes ten working days from the order date.

24. Invoices are paid within thirty days of receipt. Disputed amounts are held until the facilities manager confirms the work was completed.

25. The contract runs for two years and renews automatically unless either party gives notice at least ninety days before the end of the term.

26. Maintenance schedule for the north building. Routine inspections take place every quarter and cover heating, ventilation and the fire alarm system.